Experience the Stories Along the Rivers

MELK ABBEY

Melodies of the Danube

This 7-night cruise from Budapest traces AmaWaterways back to its earliest days on the river. Over more than two decades, lasting relationships have grown here, from supporting conservation efforts at Melk Abbey to developing an exclusive year-round Oktoberfest with the residents of Vilshofen, Germany, where the cruise comes to its festive close.

RÜDESHEIM GONDOLA RIDE

Captivating Rhine

From Amsterdam to Basel, this 7-night journey reflects more than two decades of refining what a Rhine cruise can be. Guest favorites endure for good reason, from Heidelberg's hilltop castle ruins and sweeping views to time in Rüdesheim, where a vineyard gondola ride and the whimsical Siegfried's Mechanical Music Cabinet continue to delight year after year.

GRAND EGYPTIAN MUSEUM

Secrets of Egypt & the Nile

Eleven nights through Egypt capture what AmaWaterways has built toward as our reach has grown beyond Europe. From the moment you arrive, impeccable service sets the tone for a journey through the country's living history, from the new Grand Egyptian Museum to an exclusive visit to Heisa Island's Nubian community.

ROYAL PALACE OF CAMBODIA

Riches of the Mekong

Departing Siem Reap and cruising into Vietnam, this itinerary reflects our continued investment in Southeast Asia. Locally guided experiences bring Phnom Penh's energy and the Tra Su Forest's quiet beauty into focus, while AmaMaya, debuting in 2027, carries that growth forward with a fresh, contemporary take on Indochine design.

TRADITIONAL DANCING

Wonders of Colombia

This 7-night journey from Cartagena reflects our newest chapter as the first contemporary river cruise line on the Magdalena. Built in close partnership with local communities, the itinerary moves through San Basilio de Palenque's enduring traditions, the historic streets of Mompox and the wetlands near Tacaloe, where the river shapes daily life.

Terms & Conditions: All rates are per person in USD, cruise-only, based on double occupancy in an entry level stateroom, and include port charges.
